

God is great, God is great, God is great, God is great, God is great, God is great, God is great. Who established the landmarks of religion for the servants, praise be to God, who desired His servants to be provided with obedience for the Day of Resurrection, I bear witness that there is no god but God and I bear witness that Muhammad is the Messenger of God - may God's prayers and peace be upon him - but after:

O Muslim brothers, the feast in Islam is worship, closeness, supplication, and repentance to God - Glory be to Him, the Most High - where the believer begins on it with glorification, lullaby and takbeer. If he finishes his prayer, he goes out to offer his sacrifice, declaring to God his horoscope and his piety.

O Muslims, the feast in Islam is goodness of friendship, harmony and kinship ties, in which water flows in its streams, the brother returns to his brother, the child returns to his mother and his father, and the neighbor to his neighbour, so that hearts meet with hearts. The dream is that he slaughters his son Ismail, and the dream about the prophets is a revelation revealed, and it is an order from God that he slaughter his son Ismail - peace be upon him - so he complied with the command of God and responded to what he commanded them and was patient, until God redeemed Ismail with a great slaughter, so that slaughter becomes a Sunnah through the years, and God legislates it for Muslims On Eid al-Adha, and it is legislated for Muslims to say the takbeer on Eid after every prayer and at all time, from noon on the first day until the fourth day of Eid, let us make the grace of God and His Messenger a method that we follow in our Eid and in our lives, and let us be brothers in obedience to God, and let us gather serenity Hearts and the purity of the breasts, O Allah, make the joy of the holidays a true certainty in the hearts of the servants.
